CHARITY DONATIONS

Allstate agency owner Joseph V. Thomas, whose office is located at 256-10 Union Turnpike in Floral Park was recently named an Agent Hero by Allstate Insurance Company's New York Region, and awarded a $500 grant for a local youth program. Thomas donated the grant to the Kerala Spikers Volleyball Club of Greater New York, based in Briarwood, which encourages local children and teens to participate in sports and cultural events. The grant went to support the club's hosting of the 22nd annual Jimmy George Memorial Volleyball Tournament, held at St. John's University.

HONORS AND AWARDS

City Councilmember Elizabeth Crowley was honored by the Italian American Labor Council with the Geraldine Ferraro Legislative Achievement Award for her outstanding support for the Italian community. Crowley was also recognized for her background in organized labor, her ability to work with unions effectively on key issues that come before the City Council and her strong support for working families. Crowley warmed hearts when she dedicated the award to her mom, Mary Crowley, for being such a strong and supportive role model. Crowley was seven years old when her father, Walter Crowley died, leaving Mary to raise 15 children on her own while filling out the late Walter's term on the City Council.

B'nai B'rith Housing Foundation honors State Senator Toby Ann Stavisky with a plaque lauding "her years of dedication and support to the Nathan B. Nagler Queens B'nai B'rith House."

SCHOOL EVENTS

Students, staff and families from The Lowell School held their 8th Annual walk-a-thon to benefit, in part, their cultural arts programs for the school year. Over 300 people attended the event held for both school campus sites. The event was held on Friday, October 8 at the Bayside High School Athletic Field, and Harvey Park in Whitestone and raised more than $12,600 to support arts programs, educational field trips and performing arts events in and out of school.

One hundred eighty third- and fourth-graders from P.S./I.S. 499 and P.S. 266 in Queens, along with approximately 75 undergraduate students from Queens College's elementary education program, recently gathered at the college to hear award-winning children's author David Adler talk about how he writes his books. The author of more than 200 books for children and young adults, Adler is the voice of experience. Among his most widely read are the Cam Jensen mysteries - over 25 million of them are in circulation around the world and have been translated into many languages; the Picture Book biography series co-authored with his son Michael; and several acclaimed works about the Holocaust.

Queens College's Italian American Club and other CUNY Italian American Clubs marched in the Columbus Day Parade. At St. Patrick's Cathedral they meet Bishop Nicholas DeMarzio and make him an honorary member of the Queens College Italian American Club. For more information, visit us on Facebook - QC Italian American Club

On Friday, October 8 Sister Joan Martin blew the whistle for the start and the entire student body, some parents and alumnae, were off on the 6th annual walk-a-thon in support of St. Agnes Academic High School through the streets of College Point. Once again, 2010 graduate, Megan O'Neill's dad, Thomas O'Neill, generously supplied delicious, fresh squeezed lemonade for all. The walk raised $40,000 for the school. The money will be used for various extraordinary expenses and for scholarships to deserving students.

OPENINGS

Allstate Insurance Company is proud to announce the opening of a new office in Fresh Meadows, located at 69-27 164th Street, which is independently owned and operated by agent Kim Chen.
